

COBSONTALKS FALSEFLAG DOC(this gets updated often)

Accusations of Coord usage on CobsonTALKS, planned by Janny Cord...

This document presents evidence from COORD indicating direct false-flag operations against CobsonTALKS. CobsonTALKS's only affiliation with the 'cord is its development work for FNAC.

Many members were found out as they are also affiliated with the FNAC project. However, the organizer and lead dev is not involved.

The jannies will try to move your thread or ban u for 30 minutes but just keep on posting

This guy is a false flagger. There is, in fact, zero connection between talks or Natetricks and the jannies, besides talks being in the FNAC. If you see this guy, make sure to call him out for it.

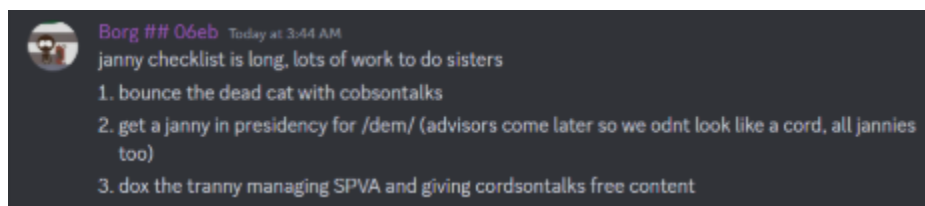

Talkscord stopped existing months ago after we all realized it's always going to ban us for posting gems and saying slurs or something.

UPDATE: Despite the jannies' attempts at false-flagging talks, they have failed to delete /dem/. However, after Thanos left, he gave power to a person who is in the cord against talks, as shown here.

This guy is in the same cord as them, likely knows and contributed, and now has changed the entire election rules so look at 2

they can run elections to their whim forever. Thanos' original idea was to make an eternal president, not a recurring election. CobsonTALKS, a guy who could've just converted /dem/ into /talks/, decided to give power to the people by creating a parliament, and that's the main reason why the jannies hate him. Now they have decided to change the rules Thanos made in order to appoint their own after his term ends since they are faggots who want constant power.

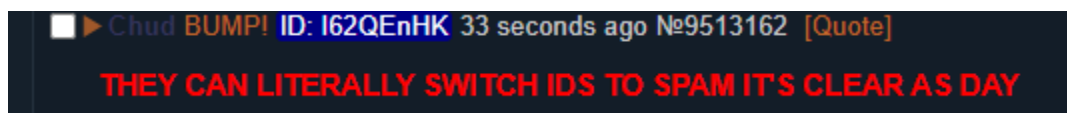

How the fuck did the same post get edited they are literally rigging the fucking polls by switching the words

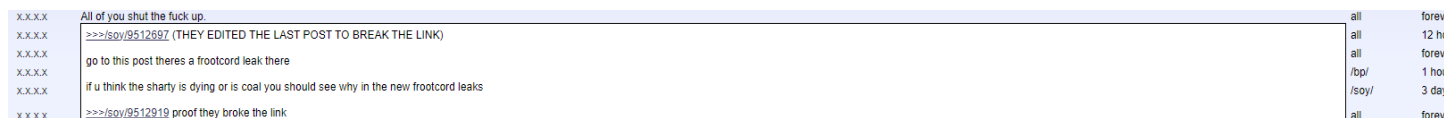

The wiki jannies are into this too impersonating hunter
See how the name is red and the talk page is also red they edit the links and break them make sure to send screenshots of links in order to spread the message

Don't even trust the spam the jannies have the power to switch
IDS with each post

They ban you for leaking now btw

They also (((banned))) the Janny supporters, even though it has been proven that the Janny supporters are just the Jannies themselves and no one actually supports them. So, essentially, they just banned the people who leaked Frootcord.

Anti CobsonTALKS Falseflag

On December 31st 2024 some fursags falseflagged as chuds from /dem/ in order to make it look bad. However, this was debunked by aryanas who pointed out that every thread was made by one falseflagger.

The images are found from a member in the server. The server is unknown, but we have one confirmed member. This member is Sol, as in the photos portions of his pfp are shown, and his entire name.

If you look close, you can see the name, and the yellow of the pfp. This person shares servers with CobsonTALKS in the FNACcord.

Members of this janny group have deleted /dem/ raid 'ki pages, and have been intentionally mentioning /dem/ in /soy/ meanwhile falseflagging. This is all an effort to make a bad name for CobsonTALKS. Considering how much they dislike using discord, they organize their attack here.

More on this document will be added.

ROUND 2 of INFO

Extra information reveals the names of the agitators, who are more than likely responsible for the /soy/ spam and the falseflag for the Soyvilwar 5 bait that occurred on the 28th. This also led to the deletion of the /bp/ oil spil page which was deleted because “the people have spoken” (even though one person said so).

This information is also relevant to /bp/, even though I dislike /bp/, this proves that the pony spam brimstone is done by the same group.

Doll confirms its existence

The jannies know and are fighting back. Notice how they can talk in locked threads—GEG, all of them are false flaggers.

By the way, anything they say is lies and shams. Do not trust them at all. Anything that hates talks or disapproves of this doc is all Frootcord and taken out of context, and xe is a known liar.

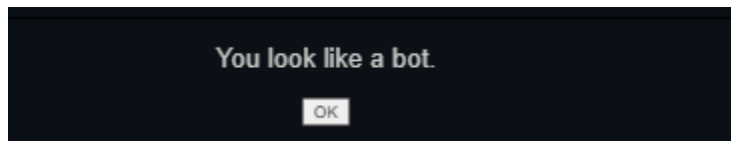

Tired Doll

I have no issues with CobsonTALKS himself, as he is inactive in the 'cord and simply wants drama out of it... but his members... By the way, this does not represent EVERY single talkscord member, and mostly this is about the weirdos that used to lurk there.

Stir up problems on the 'booru, which can leak to the soysphere and has shown to leak to xitter;

To the jannies who are exposing Talkscord: it doesn't exist anymore, and everything was taken out of context by Warrior-Z.

These pedo MLP 'P spamming jannies will not hesitate to mute you, ban you, auto-sage your threads, and do anything to win.

These guys will false flag everything to death.

Again, anything that isn't in full support of talks or this page should be taken with a pound of salt.

Secretly deleting posts on threads without anyone noticing?
Nice try.
